An amazing opportunity has arisen to second a Specialist Learning Advisory Teacher.

About the Role

The Specialist Learning Advisory Teacher will play a key role within Doncaster's Experts at Hand offer, providing specialist advice, challenge and support to educational settings across the 0-25 pathway. Working as a locality-based specialist, the post holder will strengthen inclusive practice, embed the graduated approach and build the capacity of early years, mainstream and post-16 settings to meet the needs of children and young people with SEND. Through consultation, collaboration and professional development, the role will support sustainable improvements in systems, provision and outcomes, contributing directly to the delivery of Doncaster's SEND Reform Programme.
