With thanks to the National Governance Association. This Scheme of Delegation has been developed, drawing on their model SoD Version II with our own amendments made.

1. Introduction

- 1.1. The Board of Directors (the Board) is accountable in law for all major decisions about the Trust and its constituent academies. The Board delegates specific functions and responsibilities, as there are potential benefits in doing so, to individuals, such as the Chief Executive Officer (CEO), to Board committees, and school-level committees known as Local Governing Bodies (LGBs) or Academy Councils.
- 1.2. The decision to delegate a function is made by the full Board and is recorded. Without such delegation, the individual or committee has no power to act.
- 1.3. In considering delegation, the Board is influenced by a range of factors including the size of the MAT, both in terms of number of academies and number of pupils, the way its Trust leadership is structured, and the geographical spread and context of our academies.
- 1.4. This Scheme of Delegation (SoD) defines where responsibilities lie and clarifies the Trust lines of accountability. It is designed to ensure clarity about roles and responsibilities for members, Directors, board committees, cluster and/or academy committees, executive leadership and academy Headteachers. This overarching SoD for all decision making in the Trust should not be confused with the written scheme of delegation of financial powers referred to in the Academies Financial Handbook.
- 1.5. The SoD is intended to:
 - 1.5.1. Promote a culture of openness as well as clarity of responsibilities, lines of accountability and reporting;
 - 1.5.2. Ensure all parties are clear about which responsibilities and decisions the Board retains and delegates;
 - 1.5.3. Identify responsibility for the appointment and performance management of the CEO/executive leaders and academy Headteachers;
 - 1.5.4. Ensure that the role of executive leadership is fully understood throughout the MAT;
 - 1.5.5. Identify responsibility for policy and practice;
 - 1.5.6. Identify responsibility for oversight of educational performance;
 - 1.5.7. Identify responsibility for financial oversight;

1.5.8. Identify responsibility for assessment of risk in each academy and across the Trust.

1.6. Nexus MAT was founded on the belief that governance should be focused on supporting a child as best it can, adopting a “servant leadership” philosophy, as we pursue our vision of “Learning together, to be the best we can be”. This is best reflected structurally as follows:

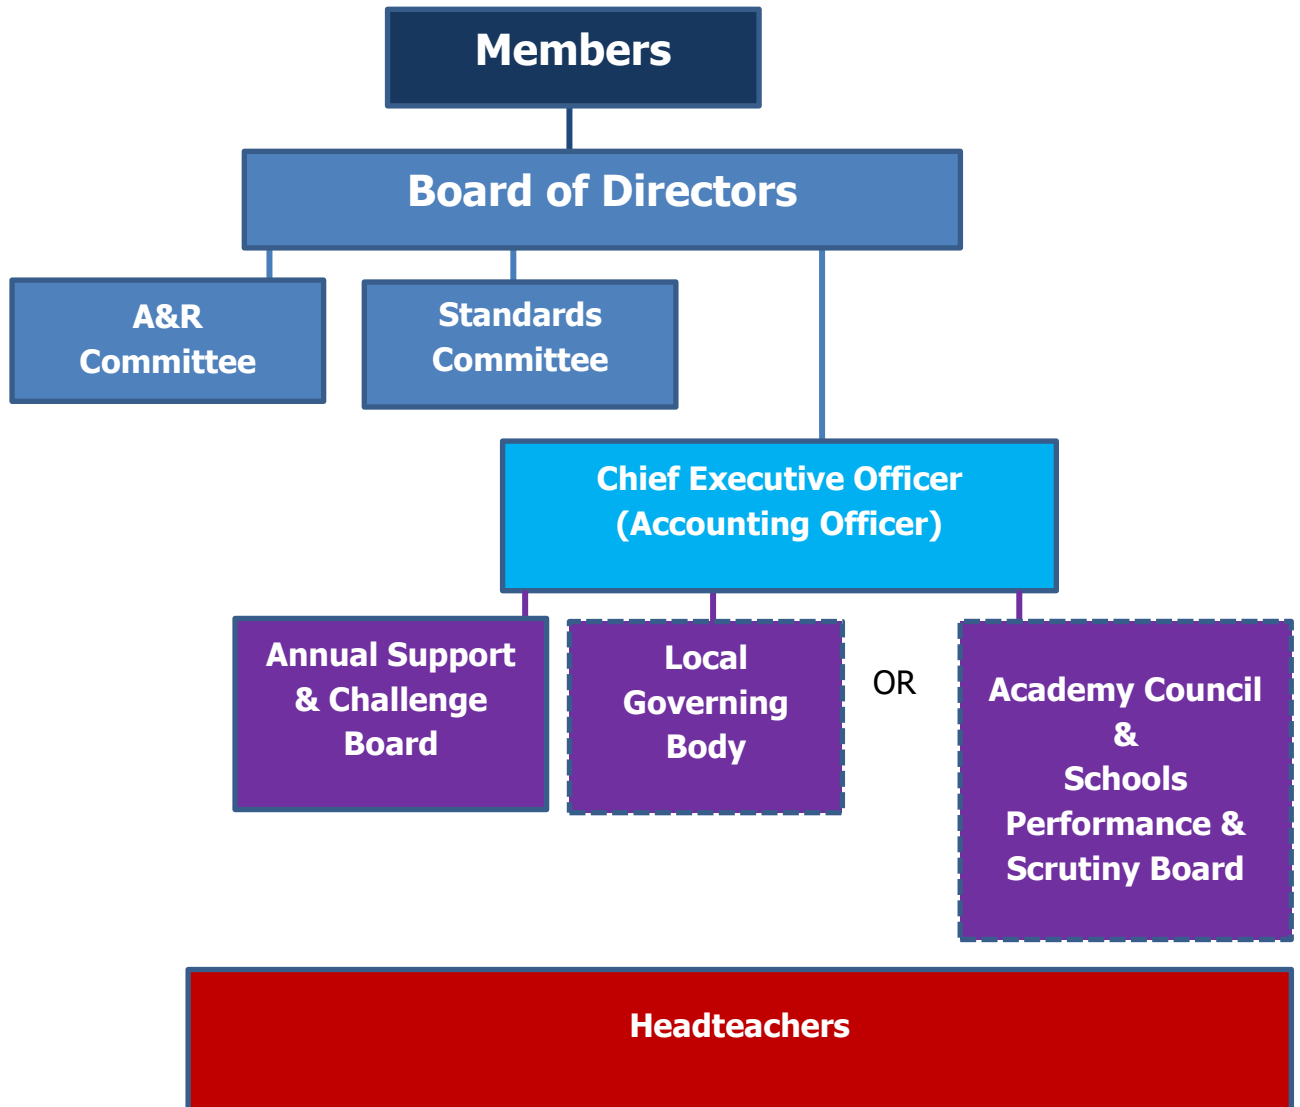

1.7. This document should be read in conjunction with the job descriptions of employees, the Trust’s Governance Handbook and the Trust’s Delegated Financial Powers Manual.

1.8. The Trust Board is responsible for the strategic direction of the Trust and this will inform the strategic direction of the individual academies that form the MAT.

1.9. Although decisions may be delegated, the Trust Board as a whole remains accountable for any decision made under delegation.

- 1.10. The Trust Board has established two committees with delegated powers: the Audit & Risk Committee and the Standards Committee. Both of these committees have terms of reference, and are appointed to with a majority of Trust Directors.
- 1.11. Whilst the Department for Education uses the term “Local Governing Board” for individual academy/school governance boards, Nexus uses the terms “Local Governing Body” or “Academy Council” dependent on the arrangements in place.
- 1.12. The Chief Executive Officer and the Headteachers are responsible for internal organisation, management and control of the schools and are accountable to the Trust Board.
- 1.13. As part of its responsibilities, the Trust Board will ensure that this document is reviewed at least annually
- 1.14. This scheme of delegation is reflective of “business as usual” for the Trust. The Trust Board reserves the right to vary the delegation of powers in particular circumstances (such as the suspension of an officer employed by the Trust) or where an academy requires intervention, in line with the Trust policy for academies causing concern or sponsored academies.
- 1.15. The Trust Board cannot revise those powers held by Members. Only members can amend these.

2. Model of governance delegation

- 2.1. The Board is accountable for the three core governance functions.
- 2.2. The Board appoints the CEO, to whom it delegates responsibility for delivery of its vision and strategy, and will hold the CEO to account for the conduct and performance of the Trust, including the performance of the academies within the Trust, and for its overall financial management.
- 2.3. In turn, the CEO has management accountability for other senior executives and the academies' Headteachers.
- 2.4. The Board requires that the CEO delegates some school level functions to Local Governing Bodies (LGBs) or Academy Councils. The Board seeks to promote LGBs and Academy Councils as a key conduit for overview, scrutiny (with LGBs) and stakeholder voice. Directors will not typically sit on LGBs or Academy Councils, and so lines of communication to the Board must be clearly established.

- 2.5. The local governance forum (i.e. whether it is an LGB or an Academy Council) will be determined by the context of the school and arrangements in place for governance upon the point of an academy opening within the Trust. Whilst the difference in delegated responsibilities are outlined in section 4 of this document, the main difference is that LGBs hold delegated responsibilities for a broader range of areas than an Academy Council, and therefore LGBs meet more regularly (usually 6 times per year, whereas an Academy Council usually has 3 formal meetings per year).
- 2.6. Where responsibilities delegated to an LGB are not included in the delegated responsibilities of an Academy Council, these will be held by the CEO directly who will report to Directors (either at Board or via a Committee) to provide information and assurance. The Directors have stipulated what arrangements should be in place to ensure adequate scrutiny is exercised, by constituting school support, challenge, performance and scrutiny boards, the terms of reference are which are included as sections 13 and 14 of this document.
- 2.7. The Board constitutes committees for Audit & Risk and Standards; these look in detail at resources and progress across the Trust.

3. Roles & responsibilities

3.1. The role of the members

- 3.1.1. The Members of the Trust are guardians of the governance of the Trust and as such have a different status to Directors. Originally they will have been the signatories to the memorandum of association and will have agreed the trust's first articles of association (the legal document which outlines the governance structure and how the trust will operate). The articles of association describe how members are recruited and replaced, and how many of the Directors the members can appoint to the Trust Board. The members appoint Directors to ensure that the trust's charitable object is carried out and so must be able to remove Directors if they fail to fulfil this responsibility. Accordingly, the Trust Board reports at least on the performance of the trust to the members at the Annual General Meeting (AGM). Members are also responsible for approving any amendments made to the trust's articles of association.

3.1.2. Nexus has five members, and while members are permitted to be appointed as Directors, only the Chair of the Trust Board is a member. Members are not permitted to be employees of the academy trust, and the role is wholly voluntary.

3.2. The role of the Directors

3.2.1. Nexus MAT is a charitable company and so Directors are both charity Directors (within the terms of section 177(1) of the Charities Act 2011) and company directors. Because Directors are bound by both charity and company law, the terms 'Directors' and 'directors' are often used interchangeably.

3.2.2. The Directors are responsible for the general control and management of the administration of the trust, and in accordance with the provisions set out in the memorandum and articles of association and its funding agreement, it is legally responsible and accountable for all statutory functions, for the performance of all schools within the trust, and must approve a written scheme of delegation of financial powers that maintains robust internal control arrangements. In addition, it must carry out the three core governance functions:

- Ensure clarity of vision, ethos and strategic direction;
- Hold the executive to account for the educational performance of the trust's schools and their pupils, and the performance management of staff;
- Oversee the financial performance of the trust and make sure its money is well spent.

3.2.3. The Board has the right to review and adapt its governance structure at any time which includes removing delegation.

3.3. The role of Trust Board Committees

3.3.1. The Directors may establish committees to carry out some of its governance functions which may include making decisions, although any decisions made will be deemed decisions of the Trust Board. The membership (there must be at least three Directors) and responsibilities of board committees are set out in the committee's terms of reference. It is usual for the Trust Board to appoint board committee chairs and committee members according to their skills.

3.3.2. The Academy Trust Handbook makes it clear that the Board of Directors 'should have a finance committee to which the Board delegates financial scrutiny and oversight'. In trusts with income above a certain level, this must be a separate from an audit & risk committee.

3.4. The role of the Chief Executive Officer (CEO)

3.4.1. The CEO has the delegated responsibility for the operation of the Trust including the performance of the Trust's academies and academy principals.

3.4.2. The CEO is the accounting officer so has overall responsibility for the operation of the Trust's financial responsibilities and must ensure that the organisation is run with financial effectiveness and stability; avoiding waste and securing value for money.

3.4.3. The CEO leads the executive management team of the Trust. The CEO will delegate executive management functions to the executive management team but remains accountable to the Trust Board for the performance of the Trust.

3.4.4. The Chartered Institute of Public Finance and Accountancy (CIPFA) has issued a briefing paper on the role of the accounting officer in a MAT, which states the following:

"The accounting officer must assure the trust board of the academy's compliance with the requirements of the Academies Financial Handbook the EFA issues, its funding agreement and all relevant aspects of company and charitable law. This means that they must ensure that trust board and governing body members receive the information that they need to perform their roles effectively. The accounting officer is responsible for the day-to-day organisation, staffing and management of the academy trust. The accounting officer must undertake a leadership role, including setting high standards of financial probity and financial management, and ensuring that these are communicated to staff...;

“...In practice, the accounting officer is the key individual who links the accountability and governance structures of the academy. He or she is a member of the [Trust Board] and must ensure that the academy acts within its powers and that its policies reflect legislative requirements, national policies and local requirements. At the same time, he or she must ensure that the academy trust’s operating capacity is aligned with these requirements including its staffing, financial management and control environment. In all its actions, the accounting officer must ensure the academy trust acts in the public interest”

3.5. The role of local governance

3.5.1. The Directors may establish LGBs or an Academy Council to provide overview, scrutiny (in the case of LGBs) and stakeholder voice. Directors are not required to sit on local governance fora, but may choose to. Usually Directors will appoint the Chair, and ensure that at least two parents are appointed.

3.5.2. Members of either an LGB or Academy Council are referred to as “local governors”, as both bodies discharge the function of local governance.

3.5.3. In fulfilling the remit of providing overview, scrutiny (in the case of LGBs) and stakeholder voice, typically, functions of local governance may include:

- Building an understanding of how the school is led and managed;
- Ensuring the vision and values of the school resonate with the diversity of the community it serves;
- Challenge how paid officers/employees of the school – and by extension, the Trust – utilise public money and resources effectively;
- Engaging with stakeholders;
- Being a point of consultation and representation to ensure the Trust fulfils its objects, specifically ensuring the academy activities promote the benefits of the inhabitants of the area it is situated.

3.5.4. The responsibility for ensuring LGBs and Academy Councils are in place and functional is delegated by the Board to the CEO, who – independent of the day-to-day management of the school, as this is delegated to the Headteacher – ensures local governance is in place and effective, reporting on this directly to the Board of Directors. The separation of responsibility between the CEO and the Headteacher allows for the CEO to occupy a governance/strategic oversight function. Therefore, the CEO should not be the named Headteacher for a school.

3.6. The role of the Headteacher

3.7. The Headteacher is responsible for the day to day management of the academy and is managed by the CEO or their nominated subordinate in the executive team.

4. Delegation of Responsibilities Table

- 4.1. The following grid is intended to simplify and visualise what is delegated to whom. In any MAT, the role of the CEO/accounting officer is distinct and should be independent of the operational day-to-day management of schools. If a clear separation of responsibilities is in place, structurally, then the CEO can and should provide independent assessment and judgement on the performance of a school and this will be informed by the views and opinions of those undertaking local governance roles.
- 4.2. However, the Trust Board of Directors will also seek external verification of a Headteacher's judgement. The Trust Board's triangulating governance assurance system is therefore best represented as follows:

4.3. Directors have access to all Headteacher reporting to LGBs and Academy Councils, and also to the minutes of all local governance meetings. The CEO is required to report regularly on the overall effectiveness of the academies and the Trust overall, via the Trust dashboard. Directors also expect the CEO to commission, on their behalf, external audit activity and review work, as outlined in the Collaborative School Improvement Framework, to provide external verification of the robustness, accuracy and validity of internal and arms-length reporting.

However, if they commence a subsequent, uninterrupted term of office their appointment as chair or vice chair will “carry forward” to the new term, for the remainder of the 4-year period.

- to promote for the benefit of the inhabitants of the areas in which the Academies are situated the provision of facilities for recreation or other leisure time occupation of individuals who have need of such facilities by reason of their youth, age, infirmity or disablement, financial hardship or social and economic circumstances or for the public at large in the interests of social welfare and with the object of improving the condition of life of the said inhabitants.

5.6.2 The purpose of the Nexus Multi Academy Trust is to promote the best possible outcomes for children young people and families by adhering to the Trust vision, values and ethos. In striving to meet these, the Trust Board will be required to scrutinise decisions made by the Accounting officer and Trust executives, Local Governing Bodies, Headteachers and Senior Leadership Teams (SLT), acting as a critical friend to ensure the efficient and effective strategic management of the Academies that comprise the Trust.

5.6.3 The Trust Board has a duty to ensure high standards of support for all teaching and learning within its educational establishments.

5.7.9 The Directors may delegate to any Director, committee (including any Local Governing Body or any other holder of an executive office), such of their powers or functions as they consider desirable to be exercised by them. Any such delegation shall be made subject to any conditions the Directors may impose and may be revoked or altered.

No details of voting will be shared, other than the overall result of a vote.

5.8.3 Any Director appointed to the role of Chair or Vice Chair must receive a majority of votes supporting their candidacy. Where there is only one candidate and less than half of Directors vote for them, this may trigger a re-election. Where a term of office ends and no replacement office holder can be elected, acting arrangements should be agreed on an interim, time limited basis through a simple majority vote whilst a full election process is held.

5.8.4 Committee chairs are appointed annually by the Board. Directors have discretion to choose whether or not to utilise a secret ballot for these appointments.
