About our School

Bents Green School is a vibrant and joyful place to work — a community where no two days are ever the same and every moment truly matters. Our students, each with their own strengths, personalities and needs, bring a deep sense of purpose, joy and meaning to our work. The connections we build, the progress we see and the milestones we celebrate make this a place that is both unique and profoundly rewarding.

Our students are enthusiastic, curious and determined learners who make meaningful progress through a curriculum carefully adapted to meet their individual needs. They achieve successes they are genuinely proud of, across academic learning, personal development and independence. Their humour, openness and desire to engage create a purposeful, positive environment where staff feel motivated and inspired every day.

Working at Bents Green can be busy and varied, and the role brings challenge as well as responsibility. However, the rewards are significant. Every breakthrough, growing confidence and moment of connection reinforces why this work matters so deeply. We are committed to helping every student thrive, celebrating progress at every level and fostering a strong sense of belonging, confidence and ambition throughout the school.

Our practice is rooted in strong, trusting relationships and a trauma-informed approach that recognises the individuality of every learner. Staff support one another, share success and face challenges together. Compassion and high expectations sit side by side, creating a culture where students and adults alike feel valued and understood. Leadership at Bents Green is visible, hands-on and closely connected to the everyday life of the school.

Bents Green School is a place full of heart, ambition and possibility — a community where staff are supported to grow, students are empowered to succeed, and everyone is united by a shared belief in what our learners can achieve.
